

Bio Mats Tunehag, Sweden

Mats Tunehag is a freelance consultant, speaker and writer from Sweden. He has worked in nearly half the countries of the world, developing global strategic alliances for various aims and constituencies, including Business as Mission.

Tunehag is a senior Associate on Business as Mission for both the Lausanne Movement and World Evangelical Alliance Mission Commission, and has lectured widely on Business as Mission as well as published numerous articles and papers on the topic. His BAM articles and papers are available in English and 14 other languages on www.MatsTunehag.com .

He initiated and co-led the first global think tank on Business as Mission (BAM) 2002 – 2004, and he is now co-chairing the second global think tank on BAM: www.bamthinktank.org

Tunehag also serves with a global investment fund based on Christian values that helps SMEs to grow in size and holistic impact in the Arab world and Asia, by providing financial, intellectual and human capital.

Tunehag is also a global spokesperson on Religious Liberty & Freedom of Speech for the World Evangelical Alliance. He serves on the Global Council of Advocates International, a global network of 30 000 lawyers in over 120 countries.

He has lectured for lawyers in Europe, Latin America and North America on Human Rights issues and lessons learned in building strategic and influential alliances shaping public opinion and legislation.

Tunehag wrote editorials on international affairs for ten years for a national newspaper in Sweden.

March 2012