

Did You Know?

- Between 12 and 27 million people are currently enslaved in forced labour and sexual exploitation around the globe
- Human trafficking is the second largest organized crime in the world today
- 95% of victims experience physical or sexual violence during trafficking
- An estimated 120,000 women and children are trafficked into Western Europe each year
- 90% of victims trafficked into EU member states end up in sexual exploitation
- Eastern Europe has been called a 'frontier of failure in the battle against human trafficking'

We want to see every person restored to the freedom that God intends and Jesus gives
